THE VIKING

VOLUME VIII 1930

PUBLISHED BY

THE SENIOR CLASS
NORTH DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL

DEDICATION

*Out of the appreciation that wells up from the depths of our hearts for the many kind words of encouragement, the friendly counsels, and strong leadership, we respectfully dedicate this volume of The Viking to*

MRS. ELLA G. BIGBEE

FOREWORD

This is the 1930 Viking. Within its pages are mirrored the more important bits of one year of high school life. But, in depicting the various activities that crowd themselves into the span of one school year, many things have to be omitted. We have tried to emphasize those sportive bits of by-play which furnish relief from the strenuous routine of class work, but first of all to uphold those high ideals of scholarship and character which are so great a part of our North Dallas High School.

North Dallas Loyalty Song

By GEORGE C. EDWARDS

Your loving sons and daughters, we,
North Dallas High, North Dallas High;
To you we pledge our loyalty,
North Dallas High, North Dallas High.
Fling out our colors to the breeze;
Lead them against our enemies;
For you we'll win our victories,
North Dallas High, North Dallas High.

No matter what may the the score,
North Dallas High, North Dallas High,
If it be low, we'll fight the more,
North Dallas High, North Dallas High.
Roll out our cheers o'er all the din;
The weary struggle 'gain begin;
We'll fight for you; we're bound to win,
North Dallas High, North Dallas High.

The Viking Chapter of the National Honor Society, organized in North Dallas High School in 1927. The emblem of this society is the keystone and the flaming torch. At the base of the keystone are the four letters, S, L, C, and S, which stand for the four cardinal principles of the organization—Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Election to membership in this society is the highest honor one may obtain for achievement in high school. A faculty committee elects the members after careful consideration. Only fifteen per cent of any class may be elected.

The Delphian Literary Society was organized six years ago by Miss Lucille Brown, who still is the club sponsor. Throughout the existence of the club the ideal of a permanent, worth-while organization with a definite purpose has been its goal.

The club entertained two hundred guests at a tea during the holidays at the home of their sponsor, and are planning several other enjoyable events as school draws to a close.

The Perigon Club, organized May 3, 1922, with Mr. Harris as its sponsor, has finished its eighth successful year. It has the honor of being the oldest club in North Dallas, and is one that has never been disorganized since it first met.

The Perigon Club, as its name indicates, was organized for the purpose of studying mathematical problems and kindred subjects which can not be studied in a regular high school course of mathematics. The entertainment and educational programs, including talks on mathematics, talks on travel, and the explanation of certain machines, have been furnished both by members of the club and by outside speakers. Many puzzles and mathematical problems are enjoyed by the members.

Another interesting phase of the club activities is the annual chess playing program.

The Chemistry Club during the past school term has enjoyed one of the most successful years in the history of the organization. The membership is made up of students interested in scientific matters and chemical research. Many fine programs have been presented before the club, and several interesting experiments have been performed from which much benefit has been derived.

At the first of the year the organization began putting out a small sheet, which is published by the school mimeograph, telling of the work of the club and of the program for the next meeting.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Syron, the club has progressed rapidly and now is one of the leading organizations of North Dallas High School.

The Students' Council, a group of the leading students of the school, was organized this year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Whiteley, Miss Epperson, Mr. Walker, and Mr. Turner. Last year there was only a Girls' Council. Because of its success, Mr. Comstock decided to organize a Boys' Council and to combine the two under one name, The Students' Council.

There is no set rule as to how the members are chosen, but at least the students elected must in some way represent their respective classes. Their aims are four: development of character, the right sort of influence, high scholarship, and leadership.

The Girls' Council meets every Wednesday morning with Mrs. Whiteley and Miss Epperson, the Boys' Council with Mr. Walker and Mr. Turner. Many times the two councils hold joint meetings in order that the problems of the school may come before the council as a body. It is in this manner that The Students' Council tries to better the school.

El Circulo Espanol

El Circulo Espanol, a club devoted to the study and appreciation of Spanish, was organized October 6, 1925, with Mr. W. T. Tardy as sponsor. Now the sponsorship of the club rotates among Mr. Tardy, Miss Crane and Miss Hinde. Since its organization the club has grown steadily in popularity and interest. The varied programs of Spanish, English and music are very interesting.

The club has just finished a very successful year, and we may safely predict, a bright future for El Circulo Espanol.

The Latin Club, which was founded in 1923 by Mrs. Myrtle Clopton, is one of the most serious clubs in North Dallas High. Its purpose is to offer the student a better opportunity of appreciating the Latin language and Roman civilization than class time affords. Its membership is elective, and pupils of any Latin class are eligible.

While the Latin Club is interested in social meetings and entertainments it tries to accomplish worth-while things, too, and this year, as in preceding years, it expects to donate some good books on Latin subjects to the school library.

It has become a custom of the Latin Club to hold a banquet each spring, honoring the North Dallas contestants in the Latin tournament. The banquets have always been very gala affairs.

At the annual North Dallas carnival the Latin Club has always found its fish pond very successful and remunerative.

The Latin Club meets every Wednesday, except the second in the month, in room 114, under the sponsorship and guidance of Mrs. Myrtle E. Clopton.

The Philosophians, formerly known as the Philosophian Literary Society, was at first solely a club to provide for the students interested in public speaking, debate, etc. But now the programs of the club vary, though they follow a strict parliamentary procedure, under the splendid leadership of the sponsor, Mr. C. W. Hill. The membership is made up entirely of boys. The various national holidays are observed.

The North Dallas High Senior Hi-Y meets every Monday night at 6:30 at the Y. M. C. A. for dinner and then for a general discussion of schoolboy problems. This discussion is led by Mr. H. G. Spruce, the Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. The general council is spoken to often by prominent Dallas citizens. After the discussion the clubs go to their respective rooms, where other topics are discussed, such as the application of Christian ideals to daily life.

The North Dallas Hi-Y and the Woodrow Wilson Hi-Y joined in having a banquet at Top-o-the-Hill Terrace. This proved to be a great successs, and it is hoped that similar social affairs may be given later.

Membership in the Hi-Y is elective.

The purpose of the organization is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community the high standards of Christian character.

The Junior Hi-Y of North Dallas High School is composed of about twenty-five boys, voted in by the members from the freshman and sophomore classes. Their meetings are held each Friday night at the Y. M. C. A.; there they have dinner and a general discussion of schoolboy problems. This discussion is conducted by Mr. H. G. Spruce, the Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Following the discussion the clubs go to their respective rooms.

The Junior Hi-Y tries to make Christian leaders of its members. The purpose of the organization is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

As the club won the efficiency cup awarded by Mr. Everts, the members tried all the harder this year. The social activities of the club are a mothers' banquet, a father-and-son banquet, and parties during the year.

Pan-American League

The Pan-American League was founded in Dallas on November 11, 1927, by a group of more than one hundred advanced Spanish students of various high schools in the city. Together with this group of students met about seventy-five adults representing various commercial and professional groups.

The object of the Pan-American League was to bring about a closer and more friendly relationship, sympathy and understanding with the peoples of the American continent. It might be stated that one of the greatest objects is to try to show a greater appreciation of the Spanish language.

The membership is limited to twenty of the outstanding Spanish students of the various Dallas schools.

Meetings are held regularly on the second Thursday of the months of November, December, February, March, and April.

The Dads' Club of North Dallas High School was organized in 1923 by cadets who were known as 100 per cent because of their efficiency.

The meetings are held on the first Thursday in each month in the lunchroom of North Dallas High, at which time a dinner is served. After the dinner the club enjoys an entertainment, consisting often of addresses by prominent citizens of Dallas.

At the monthly banquet of the club, October 3, 1929, plans for the year were discussed. Mr. Comstock spoke to the Dads on "The Purpose of Education."

The plan of sending the band to the tournament at Port Arthur, as Class A, is being considered.

The annual Mother-and-Dad supper was held Thursday night, March 27, 1930, at the high school.

Bab

Saturday night, December 14, 1929, the January 1930 Class presented "Bab," a comedy drama, under the direction of Mr. S. Stanley Knapp. This play was written by Edward Childs Carpenter.

Bab, who has been away at school, has just returned home, but does not seem to have received a very warm welcome from her mother and sister; on the other hand, her father, James Archibald, is very happy to see her. Mrs. Archibald and Leila, the sister, seem to think that she is yet too young to be in society. Leila is giving a party the afternoon of Bab's return, but has refused to allow Bab to attend. Bab becomes angry to think that she, a girl of nineteen, can not go to her sister's party. However, she manages to attend.

In the meantime Mr. Beresford has arrived from England. It develops that Bab had made his acquaintance on the train. Mr. Brooks, whom Leila really thinks loves her, has merely pretended that he did while Bab was away. Bab pretends a love affair with Mr. Grosvenor, who is really in love with her and therefore unable to appreciate the joke. This love affair increases the anger of her mother and sister, but the play ends happily for everyone when Leila and Mr. Beresford elope and Bab tells Carter Brooks that she really loves him.

SCENE

Living-room of Peter Adair's home, Blackridge, N. Y.

Act I: On a dark night in October.

Act II: The next night at 11:00 o'clock.

Act III: Three hours later.

The June '30 graduating class presented the "Call of the Banshee" Saturday night, May 10, 1930. The senior class really is proud of being able to have such an experienced cast as was chosen for the play. This play is another one of the deep mystery murder cases, directed by Mr. Knapp, assisted by John Strange, student-director.

A hypnotist, who has lived in the African wilds, returns to America to visit his cousin and brings with him a servant versed in the occult mysteries. They have with them pet snakes, monkeys, beetles, etc. These are allowed to crawl about the house. Soon an air of fearful mystery develops. Everybody begins to suspect everybody else. All act so peculiarly that each concludes that he himself is the only sane person in the house.

An old maid, from Boston, who has nervous prostration, comes to the house for rest and quiet and brings an excitable nurse. Presently the cousin mysteriously dies and his will causes more controversy. A colored servant and a country constable furnish plenty of comedy. Eventually the hypnotist is accidentally slain by the treachery of his own servant and of course the many mysteries are cleverly and entertainingly explained.

Debate

The North Dallas Debate Teams have gone through an excellent year of training, and though they were unsuccessful in winning the city debates, we do not feel that they were any the weaker as debaters. ## One-Act Play Contest

The North Dallas, Forest, Woodrow Wilson elimination contest was held at Forest Avenue High School, on Friday, February 21, 1930. Mrs. W. P. Bentley judged the contest. Woodrow Wilson, with the play, "Radio", won the contest and the right to meet Oak Cliff High School for the city championship. The plays presented were exceptionally well-acted. North Dallas was given second place, and Ralph Hamm was given honorable mention among the boy actors. The North Dallas play, "Peggy", by Harold Williamson, was directed by S. Stanley Knapp, Public Speaking Instructor.

Declamation and Extemporaneous Speaking

The declamation contests were held at North Dallas High School on March 1, 1930. In the boys' division, North Dallas was represented by John Cathey, and in the girls' division by Julia Farmer. North Dallas was unsuccessful in placing contestants in the first two choices of the judges, thereby eliminating its chances of going into the district meet. This, however, does not mean that the contestants did not do excellent work, for they certainly did present their declamations in an excellent manner.

In the Extemporaneous Speaking contest which was held at North Dallas aditorium on March 1, George Edwards represented the school and won third place. George did an excellent piece of work in a difficult contest and is to be complimented for tackling a job that few attempt.

Horace Reynolds represented North Dallas in the National Oratorical Contest based upon the Constitution of the United States. This contest was held at Woodrow Wilson High School on the eighteenth of April. Winner of the local contest will be entered in the district contest to be held in Fort Worth on April 28, 1930.

The Minstrel

Again the North Dallas High School auditorium pushed its sides out as a result of the songs, dances, and laughs presented by the annual minstrel. This year the minstrel was presented on March 15, under the able direction of Mr. Walker.

As end men we had our old favorites, Bob Stafford, Ross Hall, Charles Holmes, and Allen Johnson, with none other than John Cathey as our somewhat powerful interlocutor. The jokes were good, as were the solos sung by Allen Johnson, Charles Holmes, Roger Harris, Horace Reynolds, Ross Hall, Bob Stafford, and William Shaw, and the harmonica solo of Charles Grant.

The second act was a fifteen-minute period of syncopation, if it may be called that. Trotter's Aces improved along toward the last as they began to "get hot" on our school songs where the foul notes could not be distinguished so easily.

The third act was a skit by Bob Stafford and Allen Johnson. This act went over big with the audience as they were given an opportunity of hearing Bob and his "melody-mad" accordion, and by all means of discovering the talent of Allen Johnson as a hula-hula dancer. Their jokes were also good.

The fourth act furnished the audience with some real honest-to-goodness music by Mr. Maurice Peterman, Mr. T. E. Loper, Mr. E. D. Walker, and Roger Harris. Mr. Peterman and Mr. Loper are downtown business men who gave their time to help in the minstrel.

The fifth act was a plantation scene along the Mississippi. At this time we heard again solos by Roger Harris and Mr. Walker, which were very good.

As a token of appreciation to Catherine Dawson, pianist, for her faithful work, the boys of the minstrel presented her with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

At the conclusion of the fourth act, the winners of the Viking popularity contest were presented by George Edwards. They are: best looking boy and most beautiful girl, Corman Harris and Sally Ann Hazel; most popular boy and girl, Howard Barker and Mary Allender; best all-around boy and girl, Joe Tomlin and Charlotte McQuiston; most individual boy and girl, Charles Vance Newell and Rose Steed.

Orchestra

The North Dallas Orchestra has had a busy season. As a part of the all-city orchestra they gave a concert at the Fair Park Auditorium on the opening night of the Texas State Teachers' Association. During this convention they played for the breakfast of the Primary Teachers at the Baker Hotel; for the luncheon of the Classroom Teachers at the Adolphus, and for the tea given by the Mothers' Council in the Automobile Building.

On February 22 they played for the annual luncheon of the Dallas Elementary Teachers.

On January 5 they gave a half hour of music at the Dallas Open Forum.

On December 1 the orchestra took part in the Young People's service at the East Dallas Christian Church.

On November 4 the All-City Orchestra had its first annual banquet at the Jefferson Hotel. On the program were Mmes. Walter J. Fried, Josephine Obenchain, Miss Julia Graham Charlton, Messrs. Marcel Jones, Max Strang and Paul Van Katjwik.

Besides appearing frequently in assemblies and at various school entertainments they have played for Commencement and for both Senior plays.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club is perhaps the most popular organization at North Dallas High. They have had a wide range in their activities this year—luncheon clubs, theater, church and concerts—besides school activities, such as assembly programs, Parent-Teacher meetings, and Commencement.

During the Texas State Teachers' Association they sang for the Home Economics section at the Baker Hotel.

On December 20, as a vested choir, with the Girls' Chorus, they gave a cantata, "The King of Kings" (by Stults), in our auditorium, and on December 29 they repeated the same program at the First Presbyterian Church at Ferris, Texas.

They sang a group of songs at the meeting of the Dallas Teachers' Institute on February 8.

This spring they are planning to enter the contests between Fort Worth and Dallas High Schools, sponsored by the North Dallas Agricultural College at Arlington.

They will enter the girls' chorus contests in Arlington and in Denton.

With the Boys' Glee Club they will present an operetta this spring, "Pickles" or "In Old Vienna."

ATHLETICS

EMORY STULTS (Captain), Tackle—Our fighting captain and All-City tackle, by brilliant playing and wonderful consistency, justly received his position at tackle on the All-City selection, and his second letter.

BENNY BENNETT, Quarter—It looked great to see Benny crashing through those big guys. "Little" Bennett did not allow his light weight to keep him from being a very dependable back, and a fast one, too.

SAM BROWN, Tackle—Sam, one of our star tackles, proved a very brilliant tackle mate for Capt. Stults. He was also the center of many of the fake plays. Oh! What a line of Sams would do!

BURNETT COX, Guard and Quarter—Although "Scrap Iron" was shifted from backfield to the line during the season, he played each equally well and was always in there fighting. This year's letter was his second and last, for he graduates.

JIM CULLUM, Guard—Jim was no 200-pounder, but he had the do or die spirit always, and it was very seldom that the opposition came through his guard. He has two more years with us, and certainly resembles future All-City material.

OWEN CULLUM, End—Owen came up from last year's second team and by hard work and great consistency won himself a letter. Owen will be back with us next year.

AMBROSE DELCAMBRE, Center—It seems to run in the family for a Delcambre to be a "crackerjack" center, for "Ham" certainly duplicated his brother's well-remembered and brilliant line plays of 1928. He's smart and has plenty of drive.

FRED GRIFFIN, Quarter—"Bollweevil" started out for football when a 1B, but his size was against him. This year by playing many fine games at quarter, Fred earned a well-deserved letter.

CHARLES HOLMES, Guard—Charles was a newcomer to North Dallas this year, but he "jumped right in", and by playing "jam-up" football consistently distinguished himself.

GEORGE JACOBIE—George rose from the ranks of the 1928 squad teams to the 1929 first string where he lettered by showing a nice brand of football and the will to win.

WILBUR JONES, Guard—Wilbur's consistency and hard work won him a post at guard, and finally a letter. We shall certainly miss him next year.

JACK LITTLE, Halfback—This was Jack's second year. He's a scrapper from the word go. Switched from end to half this year, he made many beautiful and many more valuable gains for old North Dallas.

LOREN MILLER, Center—"Bud" was Lewisville's gift to North Dallas. This cotton-headed lad relieved "Ham" at center and could always be depended upon. Miller could certainly help next year's team, but he graduates.

JACK McCONATHY, Halfback—The Bulldog's chief triple threat man. He punted, ran, and passed equally well and he certainly deserved his letter, for he was constantly out there battling for the school with the regular Bulldog spirit.

CHARLES SCOTT, Halfback—Scott from Athens. Few knew who he was until he proved himself such a good backfield man. Fortunately Charles will be back with us again next year.

ED SMARTT, Tackle—Ed came to us from Greenville. He has played a nice game at guard and tackle but he leaves us in June. We'll miss him.

LOUIS SMITH, End—Louis received his second letter this year. He did this by playing one of the niftiest games at end in the city. We will miss Louis next year when we remember how he was on every play no matter where it was.

The Football Season

This year North Dallas had one of the most successful seasons it has had in the last three or four years. The team started out with only four last-year letter men, but quickly overcame this handicap by building up a new and formidable team that demanded respect anywhere it played. All North Dallas can be proud of this year's Bulldogs, not only because they finished second in the city series race, only a slim margin behind the leading Forest Lions, but also because win, lose, or draw, they always fought to the last notch. Had it not been for an overconfident spirit on their part in the tie-game with Tech. in the early part of the season, the Bulldogs could have finished on top.

But what was done, and after losing a game to Cleburne, they buckled down and tied into Oak Cliff, a team recognized as a serious city series contender. From this contest they emerged victorious.

The next game with Sunset, demanding hard practice, was lost.

The game with Forest was one of the most interesting games of the season. The two teams battled through four quarters of hard football, and when all was over and the dust was cleared away, the Bulldogs had won a moral victory by a 6-6 tie against this much heavier and more experienced team.

In the last four games of the season the Bulldogs lost two and won two, but in every game they displayed their usual consistency and fighting spirit.

Basketball

This year's basket ball team was handicapped, just as the football team, by the lack of seasoned men. There was only one letter man back, Burnett Cox, a guard, and he graduated in January. Then Sam Brown and Bob Stafford, guard and center respectively, became ineligible before the season was hardly under way. Although the Bulldogs did not finish so high in the regular city race, they won almost all of their pre-season or practice games. On one occasion the team journeyed to Waco and were defeated by the Tigers by only one point.

During the first half, North Dallas lost three games and won two. The first game was lost to Sunset (final city champions) by a 31-15 score. But the Bulldogs came back in the next two games, defeating Tech and Oak Cliff. A heart-breaking one-point loss to Woodrow Wilson followed, and then a defeat at the hands of Forest.

Starting the second half with their team badly crippled by the loss of Cox, Stafford, and Brown, the Bulldogs dropped a hard-fought game to the Oak Cliff Leopards, 19-12. Then the taller and more experienced "Sunsetters" won their seventh consecutive victory at the expense of North Dallas, 47-22.

This year, just as last year, the second teams of the various schools played a regular schedule. The North Dallas "Seconds", composed of such men as Walker, Robinson, Scott, McConathy, Miller, Bollman, and Palermo, played through a remarkable season. They lost but one game, winning the city second team championship. These "Seconds" will make great "Firsts" for next year's Bulldogs.

It will be tough to lose men like Jones, Smith, Stafford, and Cox, but we are glad to say that Morris, Brown, Atkinson, Browne, and Woods and all members of the second team will be with us again next year.

BASKETBALL TEAM

FIRST ROW: J. Walker, T. Leonard, Robinson, C. Scott, Bollman, Palermo.
SECOND ROW: L. Miller, C. E. Atkinson, L. Smith, B. Cox, S. Brown, W. Jones.
BACK ROW: Assistant Coach Fulton, B. Browne, O. Morris, H. Coffey, C. Woods, J. McConathy, B. Stafford, Coach Allen.

Track

The North Dallas Track Team of 1930 had a most successful season. It participated in four meets: the Stock Show at Ft. Worth, the S. M. U. Relays, the City Meet, and the District Meet.

In the City Meet Atkinson scored first in pole vault, Charles Holmes first in the half mile run, and Shaw first in the broad jump, and Delcambre second in the 120-yard high hurdles.

In the S. M. U. Relays, Tomlin won the 100-yard dash.

In the District Meet held at Denton, Atkinson tied for first place in the pole vault. Tomlin won second in the 100-yard dash and in the 220-yard dash, and also placed third in the broad jump. Holmes made third in the half mile run. The last three named will compete at Austin in the State meet..

Golf

The Golf Team of this year did not run quite true to form. Three veterans were back from last year's team: Marvin Jones, Jackson Smith, and J. W. Seale. J. B. Heinen, Walter Langley, and Emory Stults complete the list of club members.

Tennis

The North Dallas Tennis Team has made a most creditable showing this year. Charlotte MacQuiston, last year's state champion, won in the city, as did Alex Pope, and were entered in the District Meet at Denton. The boys' doubles team, composed of Clinton Davis and Lynn Davis, won all their matches except one. The girls' doubles team, represented by Mary McKinley and Meredith Mann, did not fare so well. North Dallas' teams stacked up a total of fourteen points, just one point under the number of Sunset who won the cup.

~the embodiment of skill and handiwork, demands a care, a faith and a hope that can only be acquired through inherent ability, a desire-to-do and a time-proven experience. ## School Days

By CLYDE WALTON HILL

(Written during his own high school days.)

The school boy's face wore a troubled look
As he vainly tried a stubborn sum.
No matter how earnest the pains he took,
He never could make the answer come.
He finally laid his book aside
And pressed his hands to his aching head.
He thought of the lessons all untried,
And in hopeless tones he sadly said:
"Would I had finished my days of school!
If they were past, and my mind were free,
No more I'd bother with task or rule,
For they'd all be gone—How glad I'd be!"

A broker sat in his office chair
His head bowed low o'er a letter brief;
Laden with worry and despair,
He groaned with the burden of his grief.
"Ruined!" he moaned. And his face told more
Than ever a tongue can tell of woe.
His thoughts went back to the years before
To his happy school days, long ago.
"Would I were back in my school boy days
Far from the sorrow, the toil, the care!
How I look back with a longing gaze
And envy the youths a-dreaming there!"

So Youth looks out into after-life
And sees a pleasure that leads it on,
While Age looks back from the fields of strife
And yearns for a freedom long since gone.
O Youth, when your days play out at last,
And you first feel sorrow's crushing weight,
Your eyes will turn to the fading past
And its joys will brighten—all too late!
